DETAILED ACTION

Applicant's Request for reconsideration filed 07/13/05 has been entered and carefully considered. Limitations of the claims have not been found to be patentable over newly discovered prior art, therefore, claims 1, 3-8, 10-15, 17-22, 24-29 and 31-33 are rejected under the new ground of rejection.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claims 1, 3-8, 10-15, 17-22, 24-29 and 31-33 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Yang et al. [US. 6,301,586].

As to claims 1, 8, 15, 22 and 29, Yang et al. disclose a computer implemented method and corresponding apparatus for enabling a user to create a frameset arrangement for a view comprising the steps/means for a frameset arrangement presentation object that simultaneously displays a plurality of predefined frameset arrangements to the user through a graphical user interface, wherein the plurality of predefined frameset arrangements are displayed as objects to the user (figure 13, "Picture Layout" section, three frameset arrangements are Horizontal, Vertical and Diagonal which simultaneously display to the user); frame number specification object that enables the user to specify a number of frames in the plurality of predefined frameset arrangements that are simultaneously displayed (figure 13, "Number of Pictures per Page" section); a frameset selection object that enables the user to select one of the plurality of predefined frameset arrangements through the graphical user interface (figure 13, user is able to select one of the frameset from "Horizontal, Vertical or Diagonal"); and a view presentation object that presents the view to the user having the predefined frameset arrangement selected (figure 13, the selected frameset arrangement is displayed on the left side).

As to claims 3, 10, 17 and 24, Yang et al. show the frameset arrangement presentation object presenting the plurality of predefined frameset arrangements, each having the number of frames specified by the user (figure 13, plurality of frameset arrangements "Horizontal, Vertical or Diagonal", each of them has two frames in the frameset).

As to claim 4, 5, 11, 12, 18, 19, 25-26, Yang et al. show the frameset arrangement presentation object simultaneously displaying a plurality of icons, each icon representing one of the plurality of predefined frameset arrangements (figure 13, Picture Layout section, "Horizontal", "Vertical" and "Diagonal" are icons. Once user selects Diagonal, the frameset is displayed on the left side).

Art Unit: 2179

As to claims 6, 13, 20 and 27, Yang et al. teach the frameset arrangement comprising specification of a size of each frame (each frame in "Horizontal" has its own size).

As to claims 7, 14, 21 and 28, Yang et al. disclose the frameset arrangement comprising specification of the location of each frame within the view (figure 13, Picture Layout, each frame in "Horizontal" or "Vertical" has its own location).

As to claim 31, Yang et al. also disclose enabling the user to modify the selected predefined frameset (figure 13, "Horizontal" frameset can be able to modify by user selecting a different number of pictures per page).

As to claim 32, Yang et al. suggest one frame of each frameset including a non-web document (column 8, lines 20-25).

As to claim 33, Yang et al. show each frameset including at least one frame for inputting a web document (column 6, lines 25-35); and at least one frame for inputting a non-web document (column 8, lines 20-25).

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1, 8, 15, 22 and 29 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
